

www.edgewoodcs.com

WORKSHOPS – Becket, MA - APRIL 2011

Ekaterini Vlamis of Edgewood Consulting & Services will be presenting two pre-conference workshops in April 2011 at the Association for Experiential Education NE Regional Conference at the YMCA camp in Becket, Massachusetts. Please consider coming & helping to spread the word to others who might also benefit from attending. Both workshops will make great staff development days for all educators, school counselors, scout leaders, and others who work with youth group populations!! Registration to attend either or both workshops will happen through the Association for Experiential Education; for details visit website <http://northeast.aee.org/>

TEAMBUILDING ACTIVITIES FOR EDUCATORS (requiring minimal props or no special equipment)

Presenter: Ekaterini Vlamis, Edgewood Consulting & Services

Cost: $60 - professionals, $50 - students; Thursday, April 7, 2011 10:00am—3:00pm *Price includes lunch.

Description: Learn teambuilding games & initiatives you can use within your own classroom or program with minimal or no props that can help you to quickly create a feeling of community and introduce acceptable behavior norms with your students/youth participants. A valuable workshop for any educator - classroom teachers, coaches, outdoor or environmental educators, college professors, scout leaders, etc.

PEACEFUL COMMUNICATION

Presenter: Ekaterini Vlamis, Edgewood Consulting & Services

Cost: $85 - professionals, $65 - students; Friday, April 8, 2011 10:00am—4:30pm *Price includes lunch.

Description: Learn to look into the heart of personal and interpersonal matters without judgment or criticism. Increase your ability to communicate peacefully with others so needs are met and work and living environments are harmonious and in line with your values. Through improvisation, experiential activities, and lecturettes, become familiar with Nonviolent Communication techniques by Marshall Rosenberg, PhD.

Also being offered: "Words are Powerful – Choose Wisely!" on Saturday, April 9th, 2011 as part of the regular conference. This workshop is free to registered conference participants. Exact time and classroom location TBA. This workshop is being offered again after being very well received at last year's conference!

Have questions? Contact the facilitator at Ekaterini@edgewoodcs.com or call (845) 255-7007.